

NAILSWORTH FILM CLUB

2015-16
FIRST HALF
PROGRAMME

Friday 4th September 2015

What We Did On Our Holiday

Andy Hamilton/Guy Jenkin, 2014, UK; Cert 12A; 95 mins.
Billy Connolly stars as the ailing grandfather who has reluctantly accepted that his family visit to celebrate his 75th birthday. While the adults bicker and family secrets emerge, grandfather finds refuge and joy in the company of his three precocious grandchildren, who steal the show. A hugely likeable film — you will leave with a smile on your face.

Friday 25th September 2015

Locke

Steven Knight, 2014, UK; Cert 15; 85 mins.

Tom Hardy gives a bravura performance in this pared-down example of film-making, as an emergency dash up the motorway turns into an existential struggle. Funny and moving, the film grips from the start....but don't try this on the M5!

Friday 16th October 2015

Of Horses and Men

Benedikt Erlingsson, 2013, Iceland; Cert 15; 81 mins.
Described by one reviewer as 'wondrously strange', 'Of Horses and Men' is set in a rural Icelandic community whose inhabitants are smallholders and horse-breeders. Breathtaking scenery and darkly comic mishaps combine to celebrate the bond between a people and their horses. Truly original cinema, not to be missed! (Subtitles)

NAILSWORTH FILM CLUB was set up in 2003 by a group of enthusiasts with the aim of showing high-quality films to the people of Nailsworth and surrounding villages in a convenient local setting. NFC is a not-for-profit community group and has no funding sources other than members' subscriptions.

Friday 6th November 2015

Selma

Ava DuVernay, 2015, USA; Cert 12A; 128 mins.

A powerful, riveting film which charts the brave resistance and victory of African Americans in their struggle to achieve basic human rights, culminating in the famous march from Selma to Montgomery. It won many awards and David Oyelowo's performance as Martin Luther King is both emotional and gripping.

Friday 4th December 2015

Pride

Matthew Warchus, 2014, UK; Cert 15; 119 mins.

Inspired by an extraordinary true story, Pride tells of a group of gay activists who decide to help a community of Welsh miners during their lengthy strike in the summer of 1984. This heart-warming film will make you laugh, cry and feel immensely proud. There's a stand-out performance from Imelda Staunton and Bill Nighy is at his laconic best.

VENUE - films are shown on Friday evenings in the Arkell Centre, Forest Green, Nailsworth. Parking is provided in the school car park. The bar opens at 7.30pm, so you can enjoy a pre-performance drink, and films start at 8.00pm.
